Discover the Keys to Excellence in Education Needs-Based Communication Training

Imagine our Schools as Safe and Caring Communities . . .

"Needs-Based Communication offers a unique message and gives teachers easy steps for peaceful communication and a new way to work with children and parents."

–Barbara Moffitt, Executive Director, National Center for Montessori Educators

Wanted: Teachers and Educators to Prepare Tomorrow's Leaders Today

Never before has a child's emotional development been more important to their educational success. Educators everywhere are hungry for effective communication skills and conflict resolution techniques that can nurture their students' emotional development. Tools that can strengthen classroom community, reduce conflict, and improve student relationships are in high demand.

Needs-Based Communication is the Answer.

Needs-Based Communication helps maximize student potential and performance by first fostering safety in communication. Emotional stability within students allow for inspired life long learning. With these communication skills and conflict resolution techniques participants will learn to build an exceptional classroom community. Participants learn how to peacefully find satisfying resolutions that they never thought were possible. Student education will improve and the process of learning will be engaging and fun again.

Here's a look inside the Training

- Increase teacher/student learning relationship
- Get to the heart of classroom conflicts quickly while reducing discipline problems
- Improve classroom safety & trust
- Reduce teacher stress and increase enjoyment of your work
- Improve student teamwork, and cooperation
- Strengthen classroom and teacher-parent relationships
